

ON THE ROAD

An easy-to-digest guide to driving in Germany

DRIVER'S CHECKLIST

- Valid documentation
- Warning triangle
- High visibility jacket
- Enough petrol for the motorway
- First aid kit
- 112 is the European emergency number

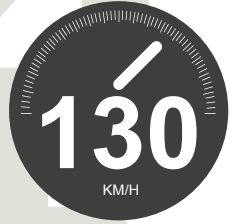

SPEED LIMITS

Autobahn

130KPH is the recommended speed if not shown differently

Dual carriageways

Main roads

Built up areas

DOs

- ✓ At roundabouts always give priority to traffic coming from the left
- ✓ Turn off speed camera detection on sat nav devices
- ✓ Wear a seatbelt in the car - no matter where you are sitting
- ✓ Drive on the right side of the road

Don'ts

✘ Run out of petrol on a motorway

You could be fined and face further consequences if you run out of petrol and don't have a good reason why.

✘ Use your phone while driving

You can face a fine of €70 if you use your phone while waiting at the traffic lights or while driving.

✘ Forget to put on winter tyres before you drive in wintry conditions

You can face a fine of €70 if you don't have winter tyres fitted (recommended from October).

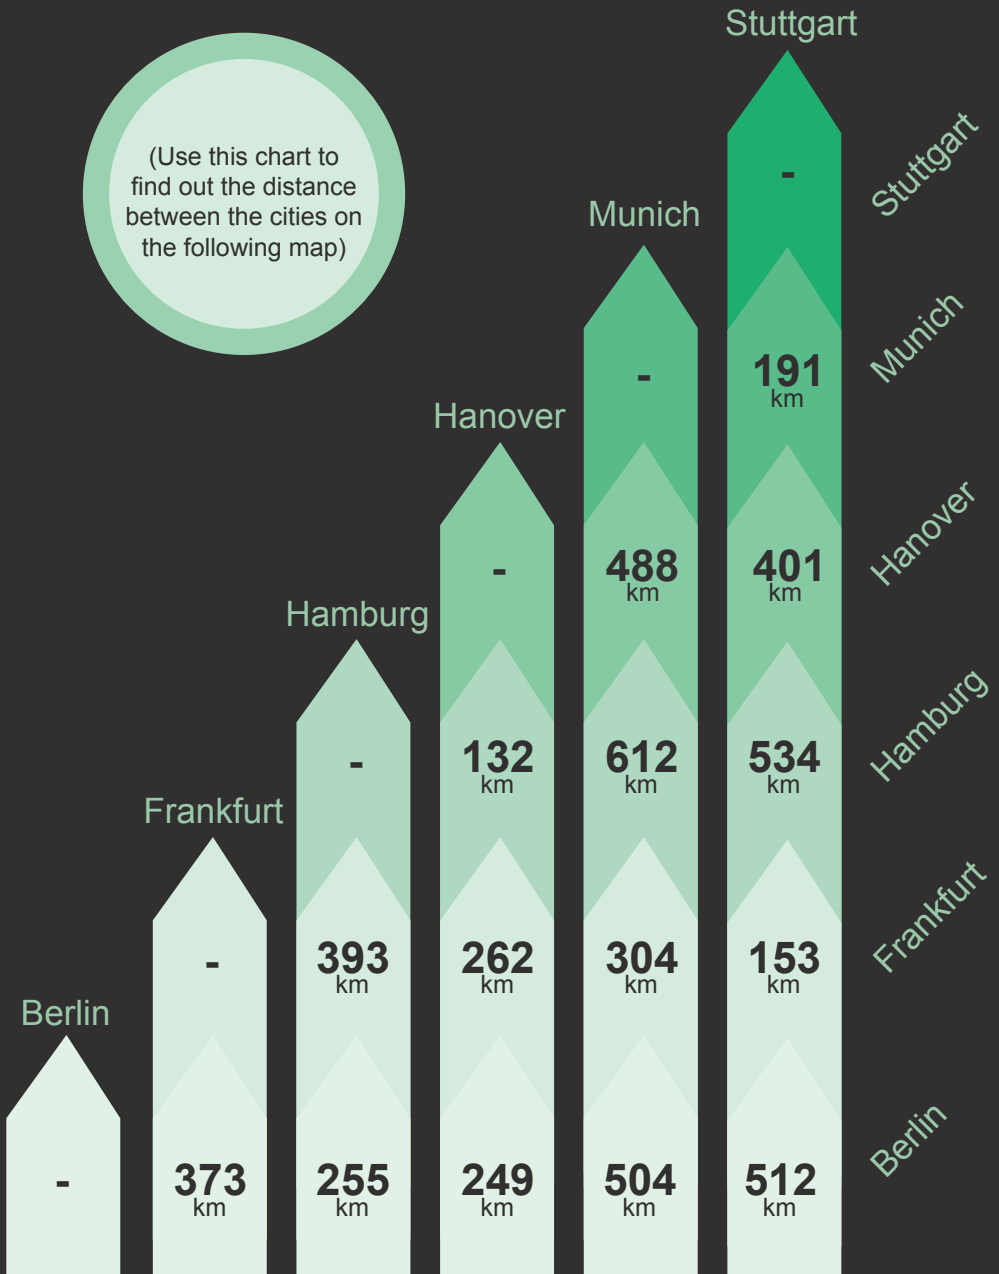

✘ Swear at people while driving

Or make a rude hand gesture, you could be fined up to €4,000.

DISTANCE CHART

Distance between popular German destinations

(Use this chart to find out the distance between the cities on the following map)

Disclaimer - This is only a proposed guide and not a direct reflection of driving regulations in Germany. It is the responsibility of the driver to research and understand all driving legislation.

DISCOVER THESE PLACES

How well do you know Germany?

LIVE LIKE A LOCAL

Try local cuisine

Apfelschorle

Apple Spritzer - apple juice and sparkling water.

Schupfnudeln

Finger-shaped potato-dumplings.

If you're game...

Stadt, Land, Fluss

Can you name a country, city and river starting with a particular letter? Compete against your friends with random letters for each round.